July 12, 1909.

We had hoped that some one would keep our readers posted during our absence.

But they have comfort in the thought that she is free from all suffering, and that ere long they will be reunited, never to part.

Misses Minnie and Lona Pope spent a few days last week with Miss Nannie Sterrett.

Miss Nannie Fauver and nephew, Clarence Crann, started to Albemarle this morning to visit relatives. Julius Prufer, of Staunton, came out last Friday to spend a few days at the home of S. C. Eagle, but decided that he would return home.
